

Still Tied to My Absolute

Kim Allert | 2002 | Key C

Performed by Dawn Weekes & Choir

VERSE 1

Oh mighty man of valour
You faced your enemy
And with the sword you've slaughtered
You had sweet victory
But it gets bitter
When you're tried in the fire
And it gets hard sometimes
But pleasing to the soul
Yet if you choose to leave your place
Who will stand instead?
For this cause were you chosen
To see that devil dead
So keep on fighting
Fighting with all the faith
Keep looking towards the vision
For the hour now is late

CHORUS

So I'll put on the armour of God
I'll put on the shield of faith
Trusting in the sword of the Spirit
Pray with sincerity and truth
For we wrestle not against flesh and blood
But principalities and powers
And rulers of darkness
And here I stand in truth
Still tied to my absolute

VERSE 2

I've read it in the Scriptures
In Joshua 5:14
God came down as Lord of Hosts
Israel was defended and positioned
And David slew the lion
Looked back to his experiences
And then he smote Goliath
And I am of that pedigree
Why should I run and fear?
I'll speak the Word with revelation
I will not surrender till I walk upon
The ashes of that wicked one
Till I stand face to face
With the One who kept me by His grace
