TORSDAG 5 FEB-81

Nu är det dax för internationella Kathy att bli mera internationell och låta mig printa ner några svenska rader.

Så jag tänkte berätta om en dag ur den absolut censurerade dagboken. Jag har lyckats skriva ner på min långa och händelse-rika Amerika resa.

TORSDAG 5 FEB-81: Sov som vanligt länge. Kathy kom indansande med sitt härliga leende vid 7-tiden för att ta hennes bror Richard och mig till en fest. När vi var på väg ut till bilen tittade hon konstigt på oss och sa - Vad är det med er två ni betår er så underligt? Det räckte med ett stort leende och finurliga ögon från oss två för att få henne att förstå att vi hade tagit acid och det tog Kathy 30 sek att övertala oss att ge henne lite. Efter en snabb visit till Kathy's hus var vi på väg till festen alla galet höga. Huset där festen var lämpad var ett jättehus med bar och hela köret. Det tog oss inte lång stund förrän vi hittade värden i huset badande i en stor massage pool. Värden (en flestig gubbe) föreslog att vi skulle göra honom sällskap.

Vi tvekade inte en sekund. Där till - bringade vi den största delen av festen.
Kathy och jag stog för påfyllningen av öl och whisky. Insvepta i badhandukar sprang vi mellan baren och poolen, bartendern såg mer och mer upphetsad ut för varje gång.
Vi lämnade efter det långa badandet, vilket hade varit en urtråkig fest utan den där poolen. Ingen heller uppskattade när Kathy gick runt och satte lite indisk aska som man blir hög av i pannan på
dom. Och "dom" var s.k. enkla tråkiga society's människor. Vi lämnade som sagt festen och åkte hem till Kathy's fort-farande höga. Om du vill veta resten av storyn, så kan du skriva till Kathy och fråga !!!

zwei - it's a hell of a way to get to europe! wow! can this gal roof!!

drei - some things have to be immortalized. unfortunately, after 5 hours under 50 pounds of plaster, our creation looked as though our princess had been nursing an entire Zulu tribe! Oh well, they'll make lovely book ends. WOW!

vier

vier - Princess Trina with close friend, companion, & body guard Scottie. 'He's my angel sent from heaven' says i.k.

i have wanted to talk to you all for a long time. what i speak of is very important to me. i hope my sincerity reaches you.

i think alot about the world. like everyone eles i am frightened of what we're all doing to eachother.

the answer is there,
within each and every one of us. we only need
call upon it.

faith and love in
unity is the only
way we shall survive.
we must stop segre -
gating, classifing,
steriotyping and
labeling one another
thru racial, sexual,
religious and political boundries.

taking us all
further apart.

the only lasting and worthwhile solution to our grave and profound problems lies not in the use of power, but in that of understanding and compassion.

without it, human life
is an intolerable bondage condemning us all to an exist-ance of violence, misery and fear.

we must maintain the essential value of human personality as something independent of race and colour. we must supplant fear with faith.

there is no you
and i. only i and
i. we are united thru
life thru god. man
is god - god is man.

and being god, we have a responsibility to eachother. we must set an example for all. everything must be upfull and right.

faith can move mountains and love can set us free. thru faith and love combined, as that's the way we all should be.

"STILL, GROWING UP WITH KATHY"

Well, many months go by, no see! I'm still growing up with I.K. and loving every minute of it. The thing I wanted to get across through these articles with you members is that; it's not just having someone to hang around with that makes up a freindship, it's the caring and sharing with another human being. That's partly the reason for this magazine and that's probably the whole reason you're alive - in my opinion. Otherwise, why did you join? I assue that it's because there is something here that attracts you to I.K. and the magazine. I write these articles because I have had (and still do have) happiness in being her friend. And I think that in sharing these experiences with you, it might perhaps make you under-stand and appreciate the true worth of a real friend.

(used with permission)

Someone who cares enough to share. And better yet, it just might make you smile. Or remember someone that you used to smile with. Or still do.

I've been trying for some time now, to write a "real life story" about being Kathy's friend that would amuse you. This one was supposed to be about mescaline and T.Rex. But you must understand that it's all of the small parts that make the whole. Every experience gained adds to the fullness of knowing. I cannot dictate to you of feeling. This is something that everyone keeps separate and private unto themselves. I haven't tried to get "heavy" in this magazine because I have only wanted you to think of happy times. There are enough things in this world that can bring you down as it is.

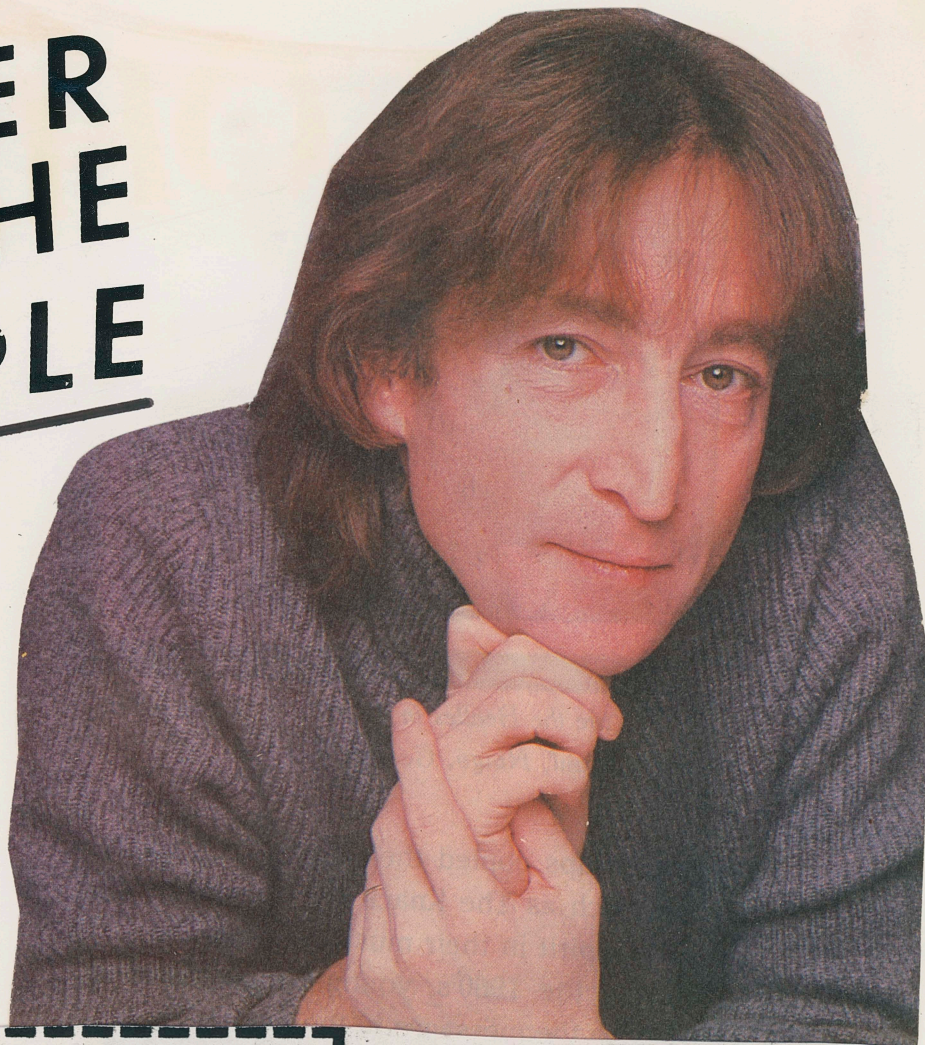

But I think it is so unfortunate when people cannot share because of fear, ignorance, or because they refuse to know you.

This is not a lecture, mind you. I am certainly in no position to tell others "the way things should be." I am by no means the perfect human being. Kathy and I are very much as you are, most likely. So why shouldn't you know us? And what keeps us from knowing you? I guess what I am trying to say is that, no matter what the religion, race, politics, WHATEVER! Love comes not from the organs but from the mind. And there are so few people using theirs anymore. Why shouldn't you love yourself? You are probably the best person you know. And I'll bet the person sitting next to you ain't so bad either.

the finest compliment one human being can pay to another is to feel that he can lay open his weakness and grief and do this without fear of rejection, safe in knowing that his stupidities and intrusions will be forgiven, that both the sublime and foolish will be listened to. to be a friend takes time and time is what nobody has, therefore real friends are rare.
