

VF-45 Peru-Ecuador War (2) – Air to Ground Attacks

The Alto Cenepa War between Peru and Ecuador was a brief, localized conflict in 1995. The two nations had signed a treaty in 1941 regarding disputed territory on the north western border of Peru. Ecuador abrogated the treaty in 1960; establishing military bases in the disputed border area. Hostilities were characterized by insurgencies by Special Forces and air-ground aircraft attacks.

Suggested Aircraft

Cessna A37 Dragonfly
English Electric Canberra (B57)
Sukhoi SU-22 "Fitter"
Mikoyan Mig 29 "Fulcrum"
Any appropriate aircraft

Mission Legs

1. Cessna A37 or English Electric Canberra aircraft from Escadron Caza Bombardeo at Capt. Guillermo Concha Iberico, Piura (SPUR) to attack Mario Modero Jaramillo (SEGZ). Return to SPUR - 330nm.
2. Sukhoi SU-22 "Fitter" aircraft from Escadron Aereo 111 at El Pato AB, Talara (SPTP) to attack Banasur (SEØB). Return to SPTP - 220nm.
3. Mig 29 "Fulcrum" aircraft from Escadron Aereo FS 612 at Capt. Jose Abelardo Quinores, Chiclayo (SPHI) to attack Patuca (FS9 – SEØF/FSX - SEPC) Return to SPTP - 520nm.
4. SU-22 "Fitter" aircraft from Pedro Canga (SPME) to attack El Carmen (SEMO). Return to SPME - 446nm.

NOTAMS:

Total mission distance 1,516nm.
4 flights required for ribbon credit