FOREWORD

Once again you will be treated to the joys of rallying at Cadwell Park; with the Alan Healy Memorial Cadwell Park Stages. For the seventh year running TJS Self Drive have kindly agreed to be our headline sponsor. This year's event is the final round of the exciting Motorsport News Circuit Rally Championship, in association with MSVR, now in its fourth year. We are again pleased to host the AEMC with round four of their 2019 Jelf Motorsport.com Stage Rally Championship. Also we are pleased to welcome back the ANEMMC with their Roadrunner Phoenix Awards Stage Rally championship 2019. For this year the event the organisers have come up with 9 special stages that will hopefully offer some new challenges and give you over 45 challenging miles on some of the best circuit tarmac in the country.

The dedicated Alan Healy Memorial Rally website - www.ahmr.co.uk - is the official place to find all rally related information published by the event organisers and has dedicated pages for competitors, marshals and spectators.

The rally is once again being run in memory of Alan Healy, the late President of Border Motor Club and one of the Club's founder members. In a long and varied career, Alan had been a driver, a steward, sponsor, C of C, Lombard RAC control officer and several other titles; but he was just as comfortable and at home operating a radio or simply being a marshal.

Along with many other Border members, Alan had been at the first of the South Bank Motor Club Cadwell Park Stages, and we think he would approve of his Club now carrying on the tradition of organising events at this great venue. Alan always insisted on doing everything to the highest standards, and the Organisers will be doing everything to ensure you have an enjoyable day's sport.

Overnight camping will be available, and of course Cadwell offers all the facilities of a permanent race circuit.

Border Motor Club are grateful for the help and assistance given by MotorSport Vision, all the Sponsors, Motorsport UK, Rescue and Recovery Units, Medical personnel, Officials, and Marshals, without whom the event would not be possible.

THANK YOU ALL.

We look forward to seeing you on the day.

The Organising Committee
